Computer Science course from ST.THOMAS HSS KILIYANTHARA

Ever since I was young, I have been passionate about computer science and programming. In fact, I scored 82% in computer science for my 11th grade exam. Since my 8th grade, I started experimenting with HTML and CSS coding, and even built my own website on my local computer. This experience sparked my interest in creating new programs and getting the desired outputs, which led me to pursue computer science in higher education.
